The Responsorial Psalm

This should not be replaced with a hymn but lead by a cantor (a choir may be the cantor).

It should offer a chance for people to respond: a musical prayer in dialogue.

A Cantor will lead the verses using the psalm tone. All people are invited to sing the response after the cantor has intoned it for the first time, and after each verse.

Copyright

Please make sure that your school has current copyright, and please use music from Catholic sources where possible. This helps to build Catholic Identity in your school. See <https://www.onelicense.net> to update copyright for your school.

Please note that Word of Life is now part of OneLicense and schools must update their membership. The Word of Life music license must now be updated to OneLicense to cover most Catholic repertoire. The CCLI music license does not cover most Catholic repertoire.

Schools should have both licenses if they wish to use a broader range of repertoire as part of their liturgical life.

Notes on Music Within the Mass

Music in any Mass should suit the function of the part of the Mass (Eg. Gathering, Communion, Sending Forth) and also sit well within the themes for the Scripture of the day, and the liturgical season (Advent, Lent, Advent, Ordinary Time, Feast Day). There can be some crossover with music for retreats, rallies and prayer services, but this will depend on the piece of music. For Mass, we usually focus on 'we' rather than 'me' in terms of texts.

For more information on singing the Mass, see this useful link on
