Types of parent involvement: Keys to successful partnerships

1. Parenting
   Parenting involves school conducting parent forums on current issues and parenting-related skills such as setting home conditions to support learning.

2. Communicating
   Communicating involves school-to-home and home-to-school communications about learning programs and children's progress.

3. Volunteering
   Volunteering involves families being provided with a range of opportunities to volunteer for activities in various locations and at various times.

4. Learning at home
   Learning at home involves families being provided with information and ideas about how to engage in learning conversations and activities at home.

5. Decision-making
   Decision-making involves families being provided with a range of opportunities to be involved in school community decision making.

6. Collaborating with the community
   Collaborating with the community involves families being provided with opportunities to coordinate community resources for families, students and the school, and provide services to the community.