Relationships are the key to learning

"Learning is [grounded] in relationships, and supportive relationships can unleash the potential of every student." (Fullan & Langworthy, 2013)

How can I communicate with you?
- Ask questions
- Celebrate
- Feedback
- Feedback
- Listen
- Communicate

How can I understand you better?
- Aspirations
- Expectations
- Needs
- Hopes and dreams
- Opportunities

How do we build trust and respect?
- Parents know staff
- Staff know parents
- Honest and open
- Trust and respect
- Constructive

How can I know more about our community?
- Gathering places
- Activities
- Transport
- Services
- Cultural backgrounds
- Understand each other
- Know the community
- Communicate
- Understand each other
- Communicate
- Understand each other
- Communicate

Reproduced from the CEOM Family School Partnerships e-newsletter distributed each term. While the e-newsletter is targeted at school communities involved in the Smarter Schools National Partnerships, Family School Partnerships initiative, it is a resource that is relevant to all school communities.